"EISENHOWER MIDDLE EAST DOCTRINE" INVOKING EAST-WEST "HOT" WORLD WAR

"Intervention" by United States armed forces for "preservation" of Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine invites defeat for United States by Soviet Union in East-West "hot" World War

NON-CHRISTIAN ASIAN-AFRICAN 80% OF WORLD'S TOTAL POPULATION SUPPORT PALESTINIAN ARAB EXPELLEES RIGHT TO RETURN TO HOMES

BY BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN
FOUNDER 1946, LEAGUE FOR PEACE WITH JUSTICE IN PALESTINE

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine has created for the nation the inescapable and unavoidable obligation to employ United States armed forces in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The intervention of United States armed forces in the Middle East for that purpose now will without question or doubt trigger the dreaded all-out and full-scale "hot" East-West World War from all indications available at present.

To be forewarned is to be forearmed. The nation has every right to be forewarned that the day upon which United States armed forces intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine will also be the day that will go down in history as the first day of the dreaded all-out and full-scale "hot" East-West World War from all the indications at present available. It will require greater wisdom than the nation now displays to prevent employment of United States armed forces in the Middle East under the compulsory obligation of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine when President Eisenhower exercises his perrogative to do so upon request of the Zionist puppet "state" of the Zionist spurious "nation" in Palestine.

On March 9, 1957 President Eisenhower affixed his signature to the Joint Resolution for the Middle East approved a few days earlier by majority in both houses of the Congress. President Eisenhower's signature upon that Joint Resolution on the Middle East by the Congress gives to the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine the full force and effect of all legislation enacted into law by the Congress. The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine have thus finally achieved the purpose they attempted in vain to accomplish in other ways for many, many years.

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine appear satisfied that the language of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine now conceals rather than reveals its real purpose. It was planned that way. It would otherwise have been impossible for Congress to enact into law a Joint Resolution for the Middle East which clearly stated in simple language the primary purpose concealed in the ambiguous and misleading language of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine in its present form.

Hydrogen-bombs delivered by intercontinental ballistic missiles will be introduced into use in the next world-war as the most destructive of all modern weapons. Quoting this nation's best qualified authority on this subject, the New York Times as recently as March 12, 1957 informed its readers that "a surprise hydrogen-bomb attack may kill 98% of the population of big cities." Other equally reliable authorities are correspondingly pessimistic regarding the prospects of a surprise hydrogen-bomb attack upon the big cities. There is no effective defense against hydrogen-bomb surprise attacks upon big cities by intercontinental ballistic missiles, a fleet of intercontinental strategic jet-bombers or a fleet of submarines capable of delivering hydrogen-bomb long-range guided-missiles on inland and coastal big cities without possible prior detection or destruction.

The death, destruction and devastation of a nation-wide hydrogen-bomb surprise attack upon the big cities of the United States are beyond the grasp of human comprehension. The magnitude of such a catastrophe paralyzes the imagination. Massive retaliation of any kind will offer poor consolation for surviving victims, if any. There is no suitable or adequate compensation for the staggering loss of lives and great destruction of property. Under these circumstances, the dreaded all-out and full-scale "hot" East-West World War must be zealously quarantined not actively incubated, discouraged in every way, not encouraged by indifference to the danger of its destruction which faces the nation for the first time.

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine must not be confused with a declaration of a new foreign policy for the United States in the Middle East. The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine presents a danger to the life and liberty of every man, woman and child in the United States. It is the "law of the land" in the United States today. It has the force and effect of every law in the United States enacted by the Congress dealing with crimes of every description. It is now a crime to interfere with or obstruct the operation of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine by deed or by word of mouth as with any other Federal, State or local law today.

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine is unquestionably transforming the Middle East area of the world into the incubator for hatching out the dreaded all-out and full-scale "hot" East-West World War. The brood of that folly will prove the most catastrophic calamity in all the recorded history of mankind. That calamity looms upon the horizons in the Middle East in the forseeable future. The nation must be fully alerted to the consequences of ignorance and indifference to this threatened danger. Forewarned is forearmed, and it is now later than the nation realizes.

It is an incontestible fact that the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine exercise a dictatorial and totalitarian control in the United States over the media of mass-communications for shaping public opinion, the newspapers, radio, television, motion pictures and magazines among others. The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine are thus able to conceal important information from the nation and to brainwash the nation with the most extensive, intensive and expensive campaigns ever conducted in the history of public relations and propaganda. The nation is brainwashed with fiction and the facts are withheld. The public are unhappily the captives of this situation and and are not in a position to do anything about it at this moment.

The impending and imminent threat to the peace of the world in the Middle East is entirely due to one single fact. That one single fact is the imperishable resolve of 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees to return to their lawful homes in their ancient homeland, come hell or highwater. They have never recognized the right of anyone on earth to deprive them of their lawful homes in their ancient homeland. They have not and will not recognize the right of anyone on earth to deny them their right to return immediately to their homes in their ancient homeland of Palestine.

The non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population, four out of every five human beings on the face of this earth, recognizes this God-given and inalienable right of these 1,000,000 Palestine Arab expellees. The Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's total population does not concede this right to these 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees. That conflicting attitude of the non-Christian and Christian nations on this question is responsible for the impending and imminent threat at this time in the Middle East area to present peace of the world.

In May 1948, without any cause or justification whatever, 1,000,000 harmless and helpless, innocent Palestinian Arab men, women and children were expelled by force and violence from their lawful homes in their ancient homeland by the armed aggression of the organized military forces of 650,000 Zionist revolutionists transplanted into Palestine for that purpose by the international Zionist conspirators between the years 1920 and 1948. At that time in 1948, Palestine was recognized by the nations of the world as the autonomous state of the Palestinian Arabs pursuant to the recognition of Palestine in 1920 by the League of Nations and all countries of the world confirming Palestinian Arab sovereignty.

The God-given and inalienable inherent rights of these 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees are in total eclipse during the international conferences so frequently called to examine the question of "free passage through the Suez Canal," "innocent passage through the Gulf of Aquaba" and the status of the Gaza strip. They only seek to give validity to the criminal acts of the Zionist armed insurrectionists who "proclaimed" the loot of their 1948 revolution in Palestine their Zionist puppet "state." The indications at this time emphasize previous predictions that no permanent or peaceful solution of any Middle East problem is possible until and unless the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees again occupy their lawful homes in their ancient homeland. That question should receive priority in every international conference on Middle East questions. Its solution will greatly simplify the solution of all other questions to the benefit of all concerned, including the international Zionist conspirators.

Fact For Fact

It is now neither unreasonable nor unrealistic to anticipate that the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees will one day soon resort to the measures necessary to facilitate the return of their stolen homes to them. It is also neither unreasonable nor unrealistic to anticipate that the Palestinian Arab expellees may find it necesary to resort to the use of methods to accomplish that result similar or identical to the methods adopted in 1948 by the organized armed forces of the 650,000 Zionist revolutionists in Palestine when they literally stole their homes from them like bandits.

The dreaded all-out and full-scale "hot" East-West World War will officially commence on the day United States armed forces are employed in the Middle East to prevent the return of the 1,000,000 Palestinian expellees to their lawful homes in their ancient homeland, a homeland fertilized by their ancestors for over 1700 years with their sweat and blood. The 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees are at this time and have always been the lawful owners of 94.6% of the area "proclaimed" by the 650,000 Zionist armed insurrectionists in 1948 the present Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The 94.6% of the area of the present Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine, owned by the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees, was valued at Five Billion Six-hundred Million Dollars ($5,600,000,000.00) at the time it was stolen from them, according to a survey made by a commission of United Nations experts sent to Palestine for that purpose.

The 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees have officially been given assurances of future support by the non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population. They have been assured that this support will closely follow the pattern of the support supplied by the Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's total population to the international Zionist conspirators responsible for the rape of Palestine in 1948, in which the United States played the leading role. With the men, money and material forthcoming under this arrangement the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab expellees will have the means to take possession of their lawful homes in their ancient homeland in the same manner but in reverse by which they lost them to the international Zionist conspirators as a result of the considerable material, money and men supplied to them gratuitously by the Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's population contrary to all canons of Christian dogma and doctrine.

It is neither unreasonable nor unrealistic to anticipate that the Soviet Union will at that time display the same interest in the future developments in the Middle East that the Soviet Union recently displayed in developments in Egypt in the month of November. In November 1956, unprovoked and unjustified armed aggression against the territory and sovereignty of Egypt by Great Britain and France resulted in the prompt delivery of ultimatums to them by the Soviet Union. Without cause or justification under international law or the United Nations Charter, Great Britain and France reduced Port Said to a heap of rubble by ruthless and reckless bombardment from the air, with great civilian loss of life, after bombardment of other cities in Egypt. Port Said is an Egyptian city of almost 200,000 population situated at the Mediterranean entrance to the Suez Canal, and from 1872 to 1954 Britain's army of occupation base.

The Soviet Union by-passed United Nations in delivering the ultimatums to Great Britain and France as Great Britain and France had by-passed United Nations in their armed aggression against Egypt. The Soviet Union ultimatums to Great Britain and France requested the complete and immediate withdrawal of British and French armed forces from Egypt. Great Britain and France were notified that failure on their part to comply would result in the bombardment of London and Paris with the most modern guided-missiles. Upon verification of this fact, Great Britain and France did not hesitate long to comply with the ultimatums of the Soviet Union. Great Britain and France wished to spare London and Paris the fate of Port Said. It was not "world opinion" which caused two of the great military powers to suddenly abandon their well-prepared campaign for the conquest of Egypt. Without emphasizing the fact, it is obvious Great Britain and France were saving London and Paris.

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine supplies United States armed forces with no more authority under either international law or the United Nations Charter, to intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine than Great Britian and France enjoyed under international law or the Charter of United Nations to intervene with their armed forces in Egypt in 1956 to vent their spleen because Egypt nationalized the Suez Canal.

It is neither reasonable nor realisite to anticipate that the Soviet Union will very long remain a disinterested spectator on the side lines when United States armed forces intervene in the Middle East to prevent the return of 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs to their own homes in their ancient homeland in Palestine. Nor is it reasonable or realistic to anticipate that the Soviet Union will for very long remain an onlooker passively watching developments in the Middle East when that takes place in an area of the world also important today to the Soviet Union.

Nor does the inevitability of the unpredictible preclude the possibility of war between the United States and the Soviet Union as a result of miscalculation by either country, as much as each earnestly desires to avoid armed conflict with the other, if possible to do so. World War I and World War II resulted from miscalculations by the interested parties and it can happen again now if greater care is not exercised by them all.

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine already are celebrating their victory resulting from their excellent choice of the words in the language of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine as finally enacted into the "law of the land" by the Congress. The language of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine completely hides from the nation the primary purpose for which it was enacted. As an example, the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine makes veiled reference to the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine as one of the "nations of the Middle East" by implication, inference and innuendo as though it had its historic roots in that area.

The Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine is not a "nation" according to either international law, scholarly usage, the Oxford English Dictionary, Webster's Universal Dictionary and every other universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject. Despite every universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject to the contrary, the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine makes reference to the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine as one of the "nations of the Middle East" by implication, inference and innuendo as if that by itself would make it that.

Any reference to the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine as one of the "nations of the Middle East" is completely contrary to fact and completely untrue in the light of unbiased and unprejudiced analysis of advanced research. The Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine is a "nation" only in the imaginations of Zionist propagandists and of their victims subject and susceptible to the brainwashing conducted since 1948 in the media for mass-communications for shaping public opinion controlled today by the international Zionist conspirators now in the United States.

Every universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject enumerates the identical seven requirements necessary to qualify an aggregate of persons as a "nation." The seven requirements enumerated are (1) a record of long association, (2) a record of common ethnic origin, (3) a record of speaking the same language, (4) a record of the same history, (5) a record as a separate political state, (6) a record as a distinct people, and (7) a record of occupying a definite territory. Prior to transplanting them into Palestine from all corners of the world, none of those 1,800,000 Zionists in Palestine prior to 1937 could satisfy any of the seven requirements necessary to qualify them collectively as a "nation" in the honest opinions of notable authorities on that subject.

The only characteristic that all the 1,800,000 Zionists transplanted into Palestine have in common with each other, or with other Zionists, is their religious faith. Under no interpretation of "nation" are members of the same religious faith, scattered throughout the world and of many races and nationalities, regarded as a "nation" solely by reason of that fact. It is the height of folly to regard all Christians, scattered throughout the world and of many races and nationalities, as the Christian "nation" solely by reason of the fact that they all profess the Christian faith.

It would be the height of folly for the same reason to regard all Catholics scattered throughout the world and of many races and nationalities, as the Catholic "nation." The same logic applies with equal force to Episcopaleans, Lutherans, Methodists, Presbyterians, Baptists and all other 257 Protestant denominations, and to Moslems, Hindus, Buddhists, Brahmins and other religious faiths. Zionists of many races and nationalities were scattered throughout the world before 1,800,000 were chosen to be transplanted into Palestine. Zionists throughout the world were never a "nation" in any sense of the word solely because they allegedly professed the same religious belief, nor does that fact make them a "nation" today in Palestine, in spite of their many spurious claims to the contrary.

It is beyond comprehension that the Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's total population apparently concedes that the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine is a "nation" in some sense of the word. The non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population does not concede that 1,800,000 Zionists transplanted into Palestine from all corners of the world, including Asia and Africa, are a "nation" in the sense of the universally accepted standard sources of reference on the subject. The international Zionist conspirators cannot deceive them at all.

The governments of the non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population were compelled to extend political and economic recognition to the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The governments of the Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's total population were in the position to compel them to do so for obvious reasons by the force of circumstances for the time being beyond their power to modify. The present international imbalance is a regretable fact which fortunately will not endure very much longer judging by the evidence of the Asian-African economic emancipation to follow political liberation.

In April 1948 fighting forces of the 650,000 transplanted Zionists in Palestine slaughtered every Palestinian Arab man, woman and child in Deir Yessin, a surburban city near Jerusalem, to give the 1,380,000 defenseless Palestinian Arabs a little sample of what they could expect after May 15, 1948 if they offered resistance to the 650,000 transplanted Zionists after the departure for England of the High Commissioner for Palestine with the last remaining of 100,000 British occupation troops. According to the International Red Cross, the butchered bodies of the victims were thrown into the water wells of the city. In April 1948 the fighting force of the 650,000 transplanted Zionists demonstrated to 1,380,000 Palestinian Arabs several other similar little samples of what they could expect if they offered any resistance to the Zionist aggressors after May 15, 1948.

In May 1948 the fighting force of Zionists transplanted in Palestine proceeded to drive 1,000,000 disarmed, helpless and harmless, innocent Palestinian Arab men, women and children out of 70% of the territory of Palestine, into the deserts of Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Lebanon and Egypt, where they are now existing in destitution in filthy camps after 10 years on 7c a day for food contributed by United Nations, including the nations responsible for the tragedy. Daily many die there of hunger, while 1,800,000 transplanted Zionists live in luxury in their homes and now grow much fatter, fresher and fiercer there with each passing day.

The international Zionist conspirators justify their puppet "state" in 70% of Palestine on the grounds that (1) all Palestine was their "Promised Land" for 3000 years, (2) all Palestine had been the "homeland" of the "Chosen People" from time immemorial, (3) Lord Balfour had "given" all Palestine to them by a letter written to Lord Rothschild, (4) the defunct League of Nations somehow "gave" all Palestine to them, (5) United Nations "created" their puppet "state" by a "recommendation" to "partition" Palestine and gratuitously grant them 50% of all Palestine, and (6) Zionists throughout the world have been "praying" for 3000 years to to "return" to Palestine, all six still believed by some foolish Christians.

Without exceptions or qualifications of any description for any reason, every claim advanced by international Zionist conspirators inside or outside the Zionist puppet "state" of the Zionist spurious "nation" in 70% of Palestine have been proven completely false, fictitious or fraudulant and in many cases all three. The international Zionist conspirators inside and outside the Zionist puppet "state" of the Zionist spurious nation in 70% of Palestine admit, and in many instances boast, that their acquisition of 70% of Palestine is solely the result of Zionist armed aggression without any legitimate historic, religious or racial rights to possession by them.

The dictatorial and totalitarian control exercised over the media of mass-communications for shaping public opinion in the United States by the international Zionist conspirators made it possible for them to brainwash the nation that these 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs expelled from their homes into primitive destitution in filthy camps in Syria, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Lebanon and Egypt are "refugees." The 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in these camps are "expellees" and not "refugees." The nation is brainwashed to regard these 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs as "refugees" instead of "expellees" for a sinister reason, as will be explained.

The Oxford English Dictionary and every other universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject defines "expel" generally: "to drive out or thrust out, to eject by force," and specifically: "when the object a person, to eject, dislodge by force from a position; to banish from, compel to quit, a place or country." The Oxford English Dictionary and every other universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject defines "expellee" as: "one who has been expelled." In view of these definitions and what occurred in Palestine in May 1948 there can be no doubt that the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in question are "expellees" not "refugees" under all the circumstances all the facts clearly prove.

The Oxford English Dictionary and every other universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject define "refugee" specifically: "one who, owing to religious persecution or political troubles, seeks refuge in a foreign country; originally applied to French Huguenots who came to England after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685." In view of this definition and every other universally accepted standard source of reference on the subject, the only "refugees" in the Middle East are the 1,800,000 transplanted Zionists in Palestine who sought "refuge" there.

The 1,800,000 Zionists transplanted into Palestine left their homes in their ancient homelands "owing to religious persecution and political troubles" in order to "seek refuge in a foreign country." Ordinarily "refugees" do not "seek refuge in a foreign country" and then resort to conquest of the foreign country in which they are seeking refuge from "religious persecution and political troubles" in their homelands, as the same Zionist "refugees" transplanted into Palestine then did there in 1948.

In any event, the 1,000,000 expelled Palestinian Arabs in question cannot be regarded as "refugees." Firstly, they did not voluntarily leave their homes in their ancient homeland "owing to religious persecution or political troubles." Such things did not exist in Palestine until the arrival of the transplanted Zionists. Secondly, they did not voluntarily leave their homes in their ancient homeland to "seek refuge in a foreign land." The description "refugees" only fits the transplanted Zionists in Palestine. The 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in question are "expellees" beyond any possible doubt. By the same token the transplanted Zionists are "refugees."

There is "a method in the madness" of the international Zionist conspirators in brainwashing the nation that the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arab "expellees" are "refugees." It is a fact "refugees" seek to "resettle," for the reasons stated, "in a foreign country." It is also a fact "expellees" seek to "return" to their homes in their ancient homeland from which they have been "driven out", "thrust out," "ejected by force," "dislodged by force," and "compelled to quit." The 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in question are "expellees" awaiting "return" to their homes in their ancient homeland.

The 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in question are not "refugees" waiting to be "resettled" at the convenience of the Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's total population somewhere in the world "in a foreign country." The dictatorial and totalitarian control exercised over the media for mass-communications in the United States by the international Zionists conspirators will never succeed in transforming the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in question into "refugees" in the minds of the non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population. To them the 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs in question will always remain "expellees."

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine for a very obvious reason included in the Joint Resolution enacted into law on March 9, 1957 the very ambiguous, vague, obscure and equivocal term: "armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism." There is not one person in all this world today who can intelligently offer an explanation of the implication, inference or innuendo explicit or implicit in the term: "armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism." There is not one person in all this world today who can rationalize a policy or a course of action with the term: "armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism." The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine evidently "planned it that way" for their purpose and with a good reason in mind.

When the first opportunity or occasion to do so presents itself, the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine will interpret "armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism" to mean intervention by United States armed forces in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine have at all times covertly planned to interpret "armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism" as the future attempts by Palestinian Arab "commandos" or "suicide squads" to cross the border into Palestine from camps in which 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs are living in exile in Egypt, Syria, Jordan, Iraq, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia waiting to recover their homes from those who stole them.

It is a universally accepted fact that "aggression" accompanied by the use of weapons becomes "armed aggression." It is also a universally accepted fact that "aggression" or "armed aggression" may be the act of one person or more than one person. The number partaking in the "aggression" or "armed aggression" varies from one person to the entire armies, navies and air forces collectively of the world's leading military power.

Both as a military term and as a non-military expression "aggression" and "armed aggression" are used in two ways firstly, "overt aggression" and "overt armed aggression" and secondly, "covert aggression" and "covert armed aggression." The term "overt armed aggression" describes instances of "armed aggression" which are open to the view of all the world, are made public, are unconcealed and are quite apparent without further inquiry or investigation. The October 29, 1956 attack upon Egypt by the army, navy and air force of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine is an instance of "overt armed aggression." The November attack upon Egypt by the armies, navies and air forces of Great Britain and France is another instance of "overt armed aggression." Under international law "overt armed aggression" is an official act by the government of a sovereign state and it becomes "overt armed aggression" internationally when "armed aggression" is open to the view of the world, is made public, is unconcealed and is quite apparent without need for further inquiry or investigation.

There are two universally recognized types of "armed aggression." They are "overt armed aggression" and "covert armed aggression." They are the opposites of each other in an important respect. "Overt armed aggression" is open to the view of the world, is made public, is unconcealed and is quite apparent without further inquiry or investigation. "Covert armed aggression" on the other hand is secret, concealed, hidden, obscure, masked, disguised, camouflaged, stealthy and it is never open or exposed.

That original draft of his Joint Resolution on the Middle East was submitted by President Eisenhower in person to the Joint Session of the Congress called by him for that purpose on January 5, 1957. In President Eisenhower's January 5, 1957 draft of his Joint Resolution on the Middle East the words "overt armed aggression" appeared where only the words "armed aggression" now appear in the "revised" Joint Resolution on the Middle East enacted into law on March 9, 1957. President Eisenhower affixed his signature on March 9, 1957 to the "revised" Joint Resolution approved by both houses of the Congress a few days earlier. Between January 5, 1957 and March 9, 1957 President Eisenhower's Joint Resolution on the Middle East was "revised" by the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine to meet "situations" not anticipated earlier.

It must be apparent to intelligent persons that the Palestinian Arab expellees will of necessity for many reasons be compelled to resort to "covert armed aggression" when they cross the border of Palestine to return to their lawful homes in their ancient homeland of Palestine from the Arab Middle East countries where they are now temporarily in exile. For numerous reasons which are too apparent to recite here the Palestinian Arab expellees are not able to provide themselves with the weapons of offense required by them to duplicate the "overt armed aggression" of the 650,000 transplanted Zionists with which in 1948 they expelled from their homes in their ancient homeland without cause or provocation 1,000,000 disarmed helpless and harmless, innocent Palestinian Arab men, women and children in collusion with the United States and other powers.

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine "revised" the January 5, 1957 Joint Resolution on the Middle East for that very obvious and realistic reason by the simple substitution of "armed aggression" for "overt armed aggression" in the revised Joint Resolution on the Middle East which was enacted into law on March 9, 1957. The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine were well aware of the fact that the Palestinian Arab expellees could not in the forseeable future resort to "overt armed aggression" against the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine without an armed force nearly equal to their enemies.

Consequently, if the phrase "overt armed aggression" was used in the Joint Resolution on the Middle East finally enacted into law the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine then could not demand United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state in Palestine, obviously the primary purpose of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine. If the phrase "overt armed aggression" was used in the Joint Resolution on the Middle East enacted into law and the "overt armed aggression" against the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine never arose, the Zionists puppet "state" in Palestine could not demand United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East under the terms of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine. Therefor "armed aggression" replaced "overt armed aggression."

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine will ask intervention by United States armed forces in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine if relatively small numbers of Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" and "suicide squads" cross the border into Palestine from Egypt, Syria and Jordan. Any attempt by a relatively small number of Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" or "suicide squads" to cross into Palestine by the use of "armed aggression" will bring intervention by United states armed forces in the Middle East under the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine as finally enacted into law if requested by the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. They have acquired that authority!

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine used the term "country controled by international communism" in the Joint Resolution on the Middle East which was finally enacted into law on March 9, 1957 for a very obvious reason which is not a secret any longer. There is no person in the world who is able to supply an intelligent explanation of what is meant by "country controlled by international communism."

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine selected the term "from any country" which was used in "armed aggression from any country controled by international communism" for a very obvious reason. If the purpose of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine is "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of "nations of the Middle East" against "armed aggression" by other countries of the Middle East or elsewhere in the world including the Soviet Union, the Joint Resolution on the Middle East enacted into law should now read "by any country" instead of "from any country." In correct English the official acts by governments of sovereign states are described as acts "by any country" and not as acts "from any country." The error was not just an oversight.

"Armed aggression" against the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine by Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" or "suicide squads" is "armed aggression" in fact and in effect "from any nation" because Palestinian Arab "commandos" and "suicide squads" are Palestinians, not Egyptians Syrians or Jordanians. The Palestinian Arab expellees are however in temporary exile in Egypt, Syria and Jordan. When Palestinian Arab expellees cross the border into Palestine "from" Egypt, "from" Syria or "from" Jordan they can be said to be crossing the border into Palestine "from any country." If Egyptians, Syrians or Jordanians cross the border into Palestine it is considered an official act by the government of a sovereign state and "armed aggression" by Egypt, by Syria or by Jordan and correctly described as "armed aggression by any country." The return of Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" or "suicide squads" to their homes in their ancient homeland in Palestine is not "armed aggression" as an official act by the government of Egypt, or of Syria or of Jordan or any sovereign state against the Zionist puppet "state" at this time.

The use of the phrase "from any country" instead of "by any country" clearly indicates the intentions of the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine. They wished to make certain that the Joint Resolution on the Middle East enacted into law provided that United States armed forces intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine if the Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" and "suicide squads" crossed the border into Palestine from Egypt, Syria or Jordan. There they are waiting in temporary exile until they can return to their homes again.

There is not any possibility at all that United States armed forces will ever be requested or required to intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of an Arab Middle East country against "armed aggression" by any other Arab Middle East country. There is not the remotest possibility that any Arab Middle East country will ever have occasion to require United States armed forces to intervene on their behalf for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" against any other Arab Middle East country or any other country elsewhere including the Soviet Union. The Mutual Defense Treaty of 1944 of the League of Arab States and the United Nations Charter eliminate every necessity for United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East under the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine except in those situations provoked by the Zionists puppet "state" in Palestine.

The Arab Middle East countries are certain that United States armed forces will under no circumstances intervene in the Middle East against the armed forces of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine even where national honor and international integrity make such intervention a solemn and sacred obligation of the United States. On October 25, 1950 the United States proclaimed a Tripartite Declaration for the Middle East. The Tripartite Declaration warned the Middle East that the United States would "immediately take action" in the Middle East if the borders of the Middle East were "violated." The United States warned the Arab Middle East countries on many occasions between October 25, 1950 and October 29, 1956 not to "violate" the borders of the Middle East or to suffer the consequences if they did so. The United States threatened to "immediately take action" against any Arab Middle East country that "violated" the 1949 so-called "armistice lines" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine.

But when the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine "violated" the borders of Egypt on October 29, 1956 the United States did not "immediately take action" against them. The Arab Middle East countries are now certain that if the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine again attacks one or more Arab Middle East countries as Egypt was attacked that United States armed forces will under no circumstances intervene in the Middle East against the armed forces of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine under existing political conditions. However, at the first opportunity to do so the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine will supply the explanation that "country controlled by international communism" can only mean Egypt, Syria and Jordan and has always meant only Egypt, Syria and Jordan to the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine and must be so construed.

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine emphasizes that United States armed forces will intervene in the Middle East only if "armed aggression" is "from any country" which is "controlled by international communism." The Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine cannot demand United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East on their behalf unless the Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" or "suicide squads" cross the border into Palestine "from any country" which is "controlled by international communism." That provision will give this nation much trouble.

For that reason the dictatorial and totalitarian control exercised in the United States over the media of mass-communications for shaping public opinion by the international Zionist conspirators is used to "smear" Egypt, Syria and Jordan as "countries controlled by international communism." Egypt, Syria and Jordan are pictured to the nation in the media for mass-communications as "countries controlled by international communism." Unless the international Zionist conspirators can "smear" Egypt Syria and Jordan as "countries controlled by international communism" the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine cannot demand United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East on their behalf when Palestinian Arab expellee "commandos" or "suicide squads" cross the border into Palestine from Egypt, Syria or Jordan, "from any country controlled by international communism" as Egypt, Syria and Jordan are now "smeared."

The term "international communism" is very misleading. The term "international communism" does not necessarily mean a Communist country. The term "international communism" is very elastic and very fluid and can mean many things besides a Communist country or a Communist government. The term "international communism" is not a synonym for Communism. There is actually more "international communism" today in the United States, Great Britian, France, Italy and in many other countries in the Christian European-Western Hemisphere 20% of the world's total population than in Egypt, Syria, or Jordan or other countries among the Asian-African 500,000,000 Moslem population of the world. "International communism" is being introduced today in every country of the world by the same Marxist conspirators who introduced it successfully in the Russian Empire in 1893. "International communism" is directed today throughout the world by the same Marxist conspirators who overthrew the Russian government in 1917. They have been less successful in Egypt, Syria and Jordan than in any other three countries in the world.

Egypt, Syria and Jordan are "smeared" today as "countries under the control of international communism" only because they are now obtaining weapons for their defense from the Soviet Union. Under pressure from the international Zionist conspirators with political influence in the United States these countries were unable to purchase from the United States what the Soviet Union is now selling to them. The United States gratuitously supplies the Zionist puppet "state" with the same equipment. If Egypt, Syria and Jordan can be kept weak and defenseless they will not be "smeared" as "countries controlled by international communism."

The Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine for many years formerly obtained from the Soviet Union large quantities of the same weapons now being supplied by the Soviet Union to Egypt, Syria and Jordan. The Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine was not then "smeared" as a "country under the control of international communism." The Soviet Union ferried enough equipment to the Zionist revolutionists in Palestine in 1948 to enable them to drive 1,000,000 Palestinian Arabs out of their homeland and into the deserts of Egypt, Syria and Jordan with that very equipment.

The Arab Middle East countries will never attack the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The weapons Egypt, Syria and Jordan are accumulating are for defense against another possible attack at any time by the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine." The Arab Middle East countries do not see any necessity for "armed aggression" by them at any time against the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The Arab Middle East countries believe that the seeds of its own destruction were planted in the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine when they mercilessly expelled 1,000,000 helpless and harmless, innocent Palestinian Arab men, women and children from their homes in their ancient homeland in Palestine without cause or provocation using the most brutal force and the most savage violence in modern history against any civilian population in peacetime.

The Arab Middle East countries understand they are "smeared" as "countries controlled by international communism" so that the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine can call upon United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East. The United States made the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine its "darling" in recent years. As the "darling" of the United States the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine cannot be considered as a "country controlled by international communism." If the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine is a country not "controlled by international communism" and the Arab Middle East countries are "smeared" as countries "controlled by international communism" United States armed forces can only intervene in the Middle East when called upon to do so by the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine unquestionably "planned it that way" for a good reason.

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine provides. "Furthermore, the United States regards as vital to the national interest and world peace the preservation of the independence and integrity of the nations of the Middle East." It is difficult to reconcile that statement with reality. United States "national interest" and "world peace" are both placed in the greatest danger in which they have ever been placed as the result of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine. The obligation of United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine exposes the United States and world peace to the gravest threats to their existences which could possibly face either of them in the light of world conditions today.

There will never be peace in the Middle East as long as the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine exists judging from all the evidence now available. As long as peace in the Middle East is in danger the peace of the world is correspondingly in danger. The obligation of the United States under the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine to intervene with armed forces in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine is making enemies for the United States of the Arab Middle East countries. The Arab Middle East countries are an influential group among the countries of the non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population. The Arab Middle East Moslem countries are also an influential group among the 500,000,000 Asian-African Moslems. The United States needs them as good friends now if the United States is to face the future confidently.

The natural resources of Asia and Africa and the future markets among the non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population are "vital to the national interest." Both the natural resources of Asia and Africa and the future markets of 80% of the world's total population will be lost permanently if United States armed forces intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. If that ever comes to pass the economic future and the political stability of the United States will suffer a set-back from which it will be impossible to emerge again as a first-class power.

The foreign policy of the Soviet Union in the Middle East has won for the Soviet Union all the former friends of the United States in the Middle East. The Soviet Union will soon become the sole heir to the heritage of the United States in Asia and Africa. The Soviet Union has no reason now to think in terms of "armed aggression" in the Middle East. That is the last thing now in the minds of those who direct the destinies of the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union makes that fact very clear to the Arab Middle East countries. Soviet Union "armed aggression" is the figment of overworked imaginations and wishful thinking. The imaginary threat of Soviet Union "armed aggression" in the Middle East afforded to the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine an excuse to obligate United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. Soviet Union "armed aggression" gains nothing there.

The Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine will place the Soviet Union in the "driver's seat" in the Middle East. The United States will be unable to remain in the Middle East if United States armed forces intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine. That should be as plain to everybody concerned as the nose on their faces. The President of the United States should not advise the nation in effect that it is "vital to the national interest" for United States armed forces to intervene in the Middle East for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine because he knows that is not the fact.

The sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine included in it: "To this end, if the President determines the necessity thereof, the United States is prepared to use armed forces." That places greater military power in the hands of one man than any dictator ever possessed in the history of the world. In his sole discretion the President of the United States or his successors can intervene in the Middle East with the entire armed forces of the United States. If international Zionist conspirators in the United States prevailed upon President Truman to "recognize" the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine 6 minutes after it was "proclaimed" by the transplanted Zionist revolutionists in Palestine, who can tell what President Eisenhower or his successors will be prevailed upon to do for "the preservation of the independence and integrity" of the Zionist puppet "state" in Palestine in view of the influence they already exert at this time.

In spite of its inhumanity and illegality, Palestine was crucified in May 1948 on a "Cross of Gold" by the international Zionist conspirators in collusion with the three leading Christian powers of the world, in consideration of colonial and domestic political inducements. The lives and human rights of 1,000,000 harmless and helpless, innocent Palestinian Arab men, women and children were bartered away by Christian nations in a most un-Christian manner for the financial favors of the international Zionist conspirators. This bloody blot on the banner of Christendom will never be completely effaced from the memories of the non-Christian Asian-African 80% of the world's total population. It will be difficult to erase.

The nation must be told the pertinent facts which have been expunged from the news by the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine while there is still time for the nation to do something about the danger to the peace of the world. They will have to do the fighting and dying in the Middle East as the curtain-raiser of the dreaded all-out and full-scale "hot" East-West World War, or suffer the same experiences here at home if that war cannot be averted. The bottle-neck of this problem is the dictatorial and totalitarian control exercised over the media of mass-communications for shaping public opinion by the sponsors behind the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine with an alloyed allegiance to this nation.

Wisdom is the use of knowledge. Knowledge is a collection of facts. The security of the nation, the life and liberty of every man, woman and child in the United States, and the peace of the world depend to a greater extent than now generally realized upon knowledge of the facts presented here. The knowledge to be obtained from these facts will enable this nation to defer indefinitely and possibly avert the outbreak shortly of the dreaded all-out and full-scale East-West "hot" World War.
